

BRETT SINGER & ASSOCIATES, LLC

* * * MEDIA ALERT * * *

* * * PHOTO OPPORTUNITY * * *

Monday, February 28th

Date: Monday, February 28th, 2005
Time: 6:00pm (see below)
Where: The Cathedral of St. John the Divine
110th Street & Amsterdam Avenue

THE CLASSICAL THEATRE OF HARLEM 2005 GALA

Join us for a star-studded event!

The OBIE and Drama Desk Award-winning Classical Theater of Harlem (CTH) will hold their 1st Annual Benefit TONIGHT at The Cathedral of St. John the Divine (1047 Amsterdam Avenue). The event, the first Gala in the company's six year history, will honor acclaimed actors Diahann Carroll, Phylicia Rashad and Earle Hyman with three new awards named for legends of African-American theater. Many other notable names will be in attendance.

Scheduled to attend:

- Honorees:
 - Diahann Carroll
 - Phylicia Rashad
 - Earle Hyman
- Melba Moore
- Sherry Bronfman
- Susan Fales-Hill (writer and producer, daughter of Josephine Premice, for whom one of tonight's awards is named for)
- Andrew Jarecki (director the Academy Award nominated film "Capturing The Friedmans")
- Eugene Jarecki (director of the 2005 Sundance Award-winning documentary "Why We Fight")
- Melvin Van Peebles
- Geoffrey Holder (actor and choreographer)
- André De Shields (Tony-nominated actor and singer)
- Carmen Delavallade (Broadway dancer and actress)
- Robert Chartoff (producer of "Rocky" and numerous other films)

The evening starts at 6:00pm. Photos are available during arrivals. Please call us for more information.

Your coverage is invited, but RSVP is a must.
Please contact Brett Singer at (212)307-7181.